Call For Speakers

2012 OPI Assessment and Data Conference

Conference Information

The Montana Office of Public Instruction will host the OPI Assessment and Data Conference on January 18 to 20, 2012 at the Red Lion Colonial Hotel in Helena, Montana. The first day, Wednesday, January 18, will be devoted to pre-sessions that will focus on specific topics. Thursday, all day, and Friday morning will be devoted to 70 minute sessions. This call is for those sessions.

Conference attendees will include state and local K-12 assessment staff, data management staff, educators, information technology staff, and vendors. The conference will include high quality breakout sessions, lively general sessions, and dynamic keynote speakers. The conference will highlight current practices, what's new, and things to come.

The conference steering committee is seeking professionals to plan and present educational sessions. The sessions will be held at various times each day and will be 70 minutes each; some sessions may be repeated throughout the conference.

The conference committee is unable to provide travel, per diem or lodging, but each speaker will receive free registration to the conference and all conference meals.

If you are interested in being a presenter at this conference, please provide the information requested on the attached Speaker Proposal Form and return the form by November 22, 2011 to:

Judy Snow
Office of Public Instruction
PO Box 202501
Helena, MT 59620

or fax to (406) 444-0743

Session Selection Process

All proposals will be reviewed, and the selection of speakers and topics will be based on the content of the sessions and their value to attendees.

If you are selected, you will be asked to provide an electronic copy of your handout materials and hard copies of your handout materials for your session. All materials will be posted on the Office of Public Instruction web site. If there is a reason you would prefer not to have your materials posted, please let us know. Also, please be aware that some participants may want to record your presentation. If this is not agreeable, please inform the participants prior to your presentation.
